

Coming to Cannon in 2024 ...

The Book that Brings Joy
The Bible as a Story that Leads us to Jesus

Starting Sunday, January 7, we'll begin the new year with a series on the Bible, the book that brings joy. As we will discover, that joy becomes ours when we learn to read the Bible - all sixty-six books - as a unified story that leads us to Jesus. We would love to share this six-week long journey together with you!

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

The Jackson & Williams Families

Leader: The fourth candle on the Advent wreath represents love. Love that would go to any and every length to be with us. Love made flesh in Jesus.
[The fourth candle is lit.]
Today, we come seeking hope, peace, joy, and love, and we find these things in a child. God made flesh as a baby in a manger. A baby who is both the beginning and the end of our salvation, who dwells with us even now, our Emmanuel, God with us. We light this candle as a symbol of love.

People: Come, thou long-expected Jesus, born to set thy people free; from our fears and sins release us, let us find real love in thee.

ALL (sung): Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
