THE LOVE THAT IS GOD

A few possible next steps

Do you want to spend the summer with the God who is love by immersing yourself in the love that is God? If you do, we recommend pausing each day to read, reflect, practice, and pray.

READ

This week we will read the book of the prophet Micah, who lived eight centuries before the birth of Christ. In his day, the kingdom of Judah was threatened by Assyria, which would eventually conquer the kingdom of Samaria (the northern portion of God's divided people). These were perilous times, both politically and spiritually. In that context, Micah delivered oracles of doom (chapters 1-3) and poems of hope (chapters 4-7), both of which were based on God's love for his people and his loving demand that the rich and powerful stop worshipping idols, abusing their power, exploiting their neighbors, and ignoring the poor. In other words, if we want to love God, we must love our neighbors. If we don't love our neighbors, we don't really love God!

Monday: Micah 1
Tuesday: Micah 2
Wednesday: Micah 3
Thursday: Micah 4
Friday: Micah 5
Saturday: Micah 6:1-7:7
Sunday: Micah 7:8-20

REFLECT

In addition to the passages above, take a moment to reflect on any or all of the following observations from The Love That Is God by Frederick Bauerschmidt:

To claim to love God without engaging in the difficult task of loving those whom I encounter in my everyday life is to engage in a deadly, deceptive fantasy; I am lying to others and to myself. (p.77)

In the calculation of God, I somehow owe everything to the needy neighbor from whom I have received nothing. (p.79)

Living at peace with God and each other is what people most deeply desire; it is inherently attractive because it is the kind of life for which we were created. (p.85)

PRACTICE

Give someone the gift of attention this week. Be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to judge. Be curious and generous with your time and attention. Trust and love others (at least one other) before they have a chance to love and trust you.

PRAY

Pause briefly each day to pray this prayer attributed to Saint Francis of Assisi (c.1181-1226):

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

SE Gwinnett Co-op Donations

Most Needed Item for July: Toilet Paper

Each month, each church will be focused on one item for donation to the SEGC. For July, Cannon's item is Toilet Paper. While all items are still welcome, toilet paper will be the item they most need from us.

Place your donations in the bins at the lower level entrances. Thank you for your generous support of SE Gwinnett Co-op!

SEGC Currently Operating in "Manna Mode"

While the Co-op is always in need of pasta sauce, they are currently operating in "Manna Mode", where resources are being distributed as quickly as they are being received. They get a lot of their food from the Atlanta Community Food Bank, but they are currently changing to a new computer system and have been closed to the Co-op for most of June and will continue until July. Please consider donating pantry and financial resources to the Co-op as you are able. Most needed food items are:

- ♦ Canned vegetables, fruit, meat, pasta
- ♦ Peanut butter and jelly
- ♦ Macaroni and cheese
- ♦ Grits and Oatmeal
- ♦ Cereal
- ♦ Non-food & personal care items, such as:
 Adult protective underwear - large/extra-large, with or without tabs, diapers, feminine products, toilet paper, paper towels, shampoo & conditioner, razors, bar soap, toothpaste.

They also have an updated Amazon Wish List if it's easier for you to order from there. The Co-op is always grateful for our support of their mission.

Mission of the Month for July is Cannon Week at the Co-op

On Communion Sundays, a special offering is taken to support a Mission of Cannon Church. The Special Offering and Mission of the Month for July is to support the Southeast Gwinnett Co-op. You can give on Communion Sunday at the altar rail or any time throughout the month.

Southeast Gwinnett Co-op serves residents of Gwinnett County who live in Grayson, Snellville, and Loganville. They offer food or non-food pantry support, and financial support to neighbors in need.

You can give online at cannonchurch.org, give, give online and choose Communion Rail Offering, in the Offering plate, or in the boxes located in the Narthex and the Connector.

Summer is Here and Jesus wants to spend it with you!
