The Road Less Taken

A few possible next steps

Would you like to follow Jesus through the Gospel of Mark? Pause briefly each day to read, reflect, practice, and pray!

READ

We're getting ready for Easter by walking with Jesus through the gospel of Mark, "the road less taken" when it comes to the gospels. What will we discover, and how will we be changed, when we walk with Jesus through the Gospel of Mark to Easter this year?

Monday: Mark 12:13-17

Tuesday: Mark 12:18-27

Wednesday: Mark 12:28-34

Thursday: Mark 12:35-44

Friday: Mark 13:1-36

Saturday: Mark 14:1-11

Sunday: Catch up on your reading!

REFLECT

Our goal this Lent is to hear and respond to the voice of God by reading and reflecting on the Gospel of Mark. Toward that end, follow a suggestion from Pete Greig and practice inflective reading this week. "When reading and rereading a particular verse, experiment with changing the emphasis on different words." (How to Hear God, p.103) For example, the first six words of John 3:16 can read in any or all of these ways: "For God so loved the world", "For God so loved the world," For God so loved the world," and "For God so loved the world". As you change the word you emphasize, God may speak a word that you need to hear.

PRACTICE

In addition to reading and reflecting on the Gospel of Mark, take a moment to turn the Scriptures into prayer. As Mark Batterson observes, "Scripture is God's way of initiating a conversation: prayer is our response." (The Circle Maker, p.94). As you read and reflect on the Scripture for the day, pay attention to the way it is shaping your response. It may lead you to rejoice or call you to repent; to intercede for others or to pray for yourself; to ask God for healing, cry out for deliverance, or beg for a neighbor's "daily bread." Give special attention to those times when the passage invites you to stop and rest in the presence of God, enjoying his presence, grace, mercy, and love.

PRAY

Before reading the Scripture for the day, prepare your heart by pausing to pray this classic prayer:

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant me so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that I may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (The Collect of the Day, Proper 28, The Book of Common Prayer)

A new book study this spring!

In Search of God's Will

Have you ever asked, “What is God’s will for my life?” or, when facing a big decision, “What does God want me to do?” Starting Wednesday, April 15, Pastor Tim will lead a five-session class on discerning God’s will based on the book In Search of God’s Will by Trevor Hudson, a Methodist pastor in South Africa. This is a great book. In fact, it’s one of the best books that Pastor Tim has ever read. You won’t regret reading it or signing up for this class. Each session will be offered at 10am and 6pm, Wednesday, April 15 through Wednesday, May 13. Sign up today at cannonchurch.org/registrations. The book is available for purchase in the narthex/lobby after worship. It is also available online in both paperback and e-book editions.
